500	Title from first unnumbered page.
520	Artists' book includes reproduced images of posters depicting Indigenous people of Alberta and/or Quebec, flags, Nazi Eagles, and messages promoting self-government. Also features a creative resume for Marshall S. Weber, an essay titled "Anonymous Rant on Monotheism", a glossary, and an explanatory note.
500	"These four posters were found in bus stops ... in downtown Edmonton, Alberta State, Canada during June of 1998 ... Attempts to contact the Frameworks Action Center were unsuccessful. Self-government, as manifested in part by the 1999 creation of the 'native' governed state of Nunavut, is but one component of the necessary reparations to the American Indigenous Nations. Ultimately, complete sovereignty is due to all the so-called Tribal Nations of the Americas"--Page 4.
500	Single signature sewn into printed paper wrappers with deckle edges. Illustration with part of a person's face and cover title printed in black and white on upper wrapper. Publisher's name printed on lower wrapper. Wrappers not included in pagination. Offset printed.
