

ARN 04821741

---

Rec stat c      Entered 19980922      Replaced 20240125064548.0
Type z      Upd status a      Enc lvl n      Source c*Roman ■      Ref status n      Mod rec      Name use a*Govt agn ■      Auth status a      Subj a      Sub use a*Series n      Auth/ref a      Geo subd n      Ser use b*Ser num n      Name a      Subdiv tp n      Rules z

---

010      nr 98035081

040      DNWM #b eng #e rda #c DNWM #d WaU

024 7      Q111449453 #2 wikidata #1 <http://www.wikidata.org/entity/Q111449453>024 7      78694509 #2 viaf #1 <http://viaf.org/viaf/78694509>024 7      0000 0000 5024 2105 #2 isni #1 <https://isni.org/isni/0000000050242105>

046      #f 1937-08-03 #g 2018-08-19 #2 edtf

100 1      Shenk, Genie

368      #c Americans #c Californians #2 lcdgt

370      Montgomery (Ala.) #b Seattle (Wash.) #c United States #e Solana Beach (Calif.) #2 naf

372      Artists' books #2 lcsh

373      Rice University #2 naf

373      University of California, Los Angeles #2 naf

373      Mesa College #2 naf

373      Mesa Arts Press #2 naf

374      Book artists #2 lcdgt

377      eng

670      Westward bound, 1998?: #b p. 41 (Genie Shenk, Solana Beach, Calif., book artist)

670      Legacy.com obituary for Genie Shenk, via San Diego Union-Tribune, September 9, 2018 #b (August 3, 1937-August 19, 2018; resident of Solana Beach, California; died...in Seattle, Washington; born...in Montgomery, Alabama; Ph.D. ... in English from Rice University in Houston; Master of Fine Arts program at UCLA, Genie began to shift her focus to book arts; taught book arts at Mesa College and the Athenaeum School of the Arts in La Jolla for 17 years; co-founder of Mesa Arts Press and a founding member of San Diego Book Arts)

---

 Export- Add- Submit- Replace- Report Error- Validate-
 Workflow-In Process